4. Subcontractors and Agents. Business Associate hereby agrees that anytime PHI and/or PIFI is provided or made available to any subcontractors or agents, Business Associate must enter into an agreement with the subcontractor or agent that contains the same terms, conditions and restrictions on the use and disclosure of PHI and/or PIFI as are contained in this BA Agreement. Business Associate must ensure that any subcontractor or agent to whom it provides PHI and/or PIFI agrees to implement reasonable and appropriate safeguards to protect the PHI and/or PIFI subcontractor creates, receives, maintains or transmits electronically on behalf of MIC.
5. Training of Staff. Such items will be made available in a time and manner designated by the Company.
16. Procedure upon Termination. Upon termination of this BA Agreement, Business Associate shall return or destroy all PHI and/or PIFI that it maintains in any form, and shall retain no copies of such information or, if the parties agree that return or destruction is not feasible, it shall continue to extend the protections of this BA Agreement to such information, and limit further use of the information to those purposes that make the return or destruction of the information infeasible.
17. Breach. Without limiting the rights of the parties elsewhere set forth in the Agreement, if Business Associate materially breaches its obligations under this BA Agreement, the Company may, at its option: (a) exercise any of its rights of access and inspection; (b) provide an opportunity for Business Associate to cure the breach within 30 days of notice to Business Associate by Company and, if the breach is not cured within 30 days, terminate this BA agreement and/or the Agreement; or (c) immediately and unilaterally terminate this BA Agreement without penalty or recourse. Company retains the right to report to the Secretary any violation or material breach. The remedies under this BA Agreement and set forth elsewhere in this BA Agreement shall be cumulative, and the exercise of any remedy shall not preclude the exercise of any other.
18. Prohibition on Sale of Records. Business Associate shall not directly or indirectly receive remunerations in exchange for any PHI and/or PIFI.
19. Fundraising. Business Associate agrees not to use PHI and/or PIFI for the purpose of fundraising.
20. Confidentiality. Business Associate shall not, without prior consent of MIC, disclose any Business Confidential Information other than as expressly permitted in this agreement.
21. Penalties for Noncompliance. Business Associate acknowledges that it is subject to civil and criminal enforcement for failure to comply with the Gramm-Leach Bliley Act and/or the Privacy Rule and Security Rule, as amended by HITECH.

COMPANY'S RESPONSIBILITIES:

22. Notification. Company shall notify Business Associate to the extent it may affect Business Associate's use or disclosure of PHI of:
- any changes in, or revocation of, permission by individuals to use or disclose PHI;
 - its notice of privacy practices and any limitations; and
 - any restrictions to the use or disclosure of PHI that Company has agreed to in response to an individual's request for restriction.

25. Amendment. Upon the enactment of any law or regulation affecting the use or disclosure of PHI and/or PIFI, or the publication of any decision of a court of the United States or of this state relating to any such law, or the publication of any interpretive policy or opinion of any governmental agency charged with the enforcement of any such law or regulation, Company may, by written notice to the Business Associate, amend this BA Agreement in such manner as Company determines necessary to comply with such law or regulation.
26. Survival. The obligations of Business Associate under this BA Agreement shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

This appointment is on a non-exclusive basis and Company may appoint other distributors in any state.

2. DISTRIBUTOR DUTIES: Distributor agrees to accept the following duties and responsibilities:

B. Distributor may recruit persons to be Downline. Company will appoint Downline, unless there is something that would disqualify them. Company reserves the right to terminate Downline. Distributor shall monitor Downline and communicate information to Company, of which Distributor is aware or should be aware, that Company needs to know about Downline to properly address compliance or other risks. When requested by Company, Distributor shall communicate Company information to Downline.

If at any time Distributor consents or has consented to have Downline report to Distributor through a hierarchical relationship with any Company, Distributor hereby consents to: (i) the appointment of Downline with each Company; and (ii) to have Downline report to Distributor through a hierarchical relationship with each Company. Company may pay reduced commissions on replacements, reinstatements or reissues as provided in any Commission Schedule or in the policies and procedures of Company.

5. YOUR STATEMENT: A statement of Distributor's account will be made available to Distributor, unless Distributor's account with Company is zero. If Distributor dies, this information will be available to Distributor's spouse or estate. Distributor agrees that each statement will be binding on Distributor, Distributor's spouse and Distributor's estate unless Distributor, Distributor's spouse or Distributor's estate tells Company, within 45 days after the statement is transmitted, that the statement is wrong.

6. ASSIGNMENT: Distributor may not assign (including any assignment as collateral securing a loan) this Agreement, any amount Company owes Distributor, or any other interest herein without getting Company's written consent first. If Distributor breaches this Paragraph, the assignment shall not be valid. If Company consents to an assignment by Distributor of this Agreement, Distributor shall remain liable for the performance of the terms of this Agreement by the person or business entity who receives the commission assignment from Distributor.

7. LIMITED AUTHORITY: In addition to all other limitations herein, Distributor will not accept any risks, change any policies, make any contracts for Company, waive any terms, rates or conditions of any policies, or obligate Company in any way unless Distributor secures Company's written consent first. Distributor will not change any premium rates or extend the time for paying premiums.

8. ADVERTISING: Distributor will not use any advertising or any material not furnished by Company without getting Company's written consent first. 11. RESERVATION OF RIGHTS: Company shall not be liable to Distributor for exercising any of the rights given to Company in its Products with or without notice to Distributor. Examples of these rights are the right to cancel or nonrenew the Product or to change the premium rates. Company shall not be liable to Distributor for withdrawing or substituting Product forms, nor for withdrawing entirely from any state. Further, Company specifically reserves the right without limitation and without liability to Distributor to change or discontinue any marketing concept or underwriting program in any state, change any premium rate, change the conditions or terms under which a Product may be offered, or reject any application or return any premium without giving any reasons for doing so.

12. VESTMENT: Commissions provided for in this Agreement shall be vested as provided in the Commissions Schedule, subject to Paragraphs 13, 14, and 15, herein. Subject to any limitations in this Agreement, upon the death of Distributor, any commissions shall be payable, unless assigned, to the surviving spouse. If there is no surviving spouse, any commissions shall be payable to Distributor's estate.

After this Agreement terminates Company will not pay commissions after any year in which the total commission owed or paid to Distributor is less than $500.00. If compensation due to Distributor falls below the minimum required, such amount shall roll up to and be payable to the next level above Distributor in the distributor hierarchy, if any.

This provision shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

13. TERMINATION: Distributor or Company may terminate, without cause, this Agreement by giving at least 30 days notice to the other party. Distributor or Company may terminate this Agreement immediately for "cause" by giving notice to the other party. Notice of termination shall be given pursuant to the Notice provision of Paragraph 19, herein. Cause shall mean the following acts by Distributor:

- A. Fraud or any breach of the terms of this Agreement.
- B. Failure to pay any money required by this Agreement to be paid.
- C. Violation of any federal, state or local laws or regulations.
- D. Any act or omission by Distributor which could affect the right of Company to do business in any state.
- E. Inducing or attempting to induce policyholders or certificateholders to relinquish or replace Company policies with such frequency as to indicate a pattern of inappropriate activity.
- F. Repeatedly failing to comply with material terms of this Agreement and/or Company's stated policies and procedures concerning recruiting and production requirements for Distributor or Downline.
- G. Causing or attempting to cause employees or agents of Company to discontinue their association with Company.
- H. Misappropriation or commingling of Company funds.
- I. Misrepresentation or omission of any material information on an application for a Product.
- J. Misrepresentation of any of Company Products or services.
- K. Revocation or suspension of Distributor's license.

If Company believes it may have the right to terminate this Agreement for cause, the Company, in its sole discretion, may suspend this Agreement while it investigates whether cause for termination exists. In this instance, Company shall provide Distributor notification of the suspension. This suspension can be imposed in place of terminating the Agreement in order to provide time for determining the facts. Until a suspension is withdrawn by Company, it has the same effect on Distributor's rights to compensation and authority to represent Company as does termination. Company will notify Distributor whether the suspension is to be withdrawn or the Agreement is to be terminated for cause. If the suspension is withdrawn, all accumulated compensation will be paid to the Distributor. No interest shall be payable on any compensation withheld under this Paragraph and subsequently paid. If the Agreement is terminated, the termination shall take effect as of the date Distributor was sent the notice of suspension, and no further compensation shall be due or payable hereunder for any reason after the date of termination.

This Agreement will automatically terminate (i) if Distributor is a natural person, upon the death of Distributor; or (ii) if Distributor is a corporation, limited liability company or partnership, Distributor is dissolved or ceases to exist.

This provision shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

14. FORFEITURE AND REMEDY: Distributor agrees that after this Agreement ends, Distributor will have no interest in any business written for Company, except as specifically provided in this Agreement. Distributor will forfeit all further compensation from Company, including vested commissions, if Distributor attempts to influence any of Company's policyholders or certificateholders with whom Distributor or Downline have done business, or Company's solicitors, distributors or employees, to terminate their contract or employment with Company, or this Agreement is terminated for cause as defined in Paragraph 13, herein. Distributor also agrees that Company may secure a court order stopping Distributor from using such influence since Company does not have an adequate legal remedy.

Distributor shall not receive any further compensation on account of any Solicitor that (i) is terminated for cause, or (ii) after termination of his/her appointment, attempts to influence any policyholder to terminate his/her contract with the Company.

15. WAIVER: The fact that Company may not enforce the terms of this Agreement does not mean that Company waives them or that Company will not enforce them at a future time.

16. RELATIONSHIP: Nothing in this Agreement shall create a relationship of employee and employer, or a partnership, between Distributor and Company. Distributor is free to exercise Distributor's own judgment as to the persons Distributor solicits and where and when Distributor solicits them. However, Company may give instructions, which do not interfere with this freedom, regarding the conduct of Distributor's business for Company and Distributor will obey these instructions. Neither Distributor nor Solicitors shall represent in any manner that they are employees of Company.

17. DISTRIBUTOR OR SOLICITOR TRANSFER: The Company will permit a transfer of Downline to another organization pursuant to Company's policies and procedures.

18. CONFIDENTIALITY: Distributor agrees to keep all Company, client, and policyholder information confidential in accordance with the Business Associate Agreement, which is fully incorporated herein by reference. In the instance of any conflict between the terms of this Agreement and the Business Associate Agreement, the terms of the Business Associate Agreement shall control.

19. NOTICES: Any notice required by, or provided for, in this Agreement shall be considered given when it is mailed, postage prepaid, by first-class U.S. mail and addressed to the party or parties at their last known address.

20. MISCELLANEOUS:

A. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Nebraska.

B. In the event of any dispute involving the provisions of this Agreement or any attachments (hereinafter referred to as "Dispute") between Distributor and Company which is not otherwise resolved by mutual agreement, the parties agree to submit said Dispute to mediation by an independent professional mediator mutually agreed upon by the parties. The mediation shall take place at the offices of the mediator or as mutually agreed upon by the parties. Mediation shall be a precondition to arbitration. The expense of mediation shall be borne by the party first demanding mediation.

In the event any Dispute is not resolved by mediation, either party may seek to resolve such Dispute through binding arbitration by providing written notice to the other party. The Dispute shall be referred to a single arbitrator as agreed upon by the parties. Within thirty (30) days of the date of the written arbitration notice, each party shall propose a list of three arbitrators and the parties shall attempt to reach agreement on a single arbitrator from these lists. If an agreement cannot be reached on the selection of the arbitrator within thirty (30) days of the arbitration notice, the matter shall be referred to the American Arbitration Association, which shall appoint an arbitrator from these lists or from some other source. The arbitration proceeding shall be held in a neutral location and at a time set by the arbitrator. The arbitration will be governed by the rules then in effect of the American Arbitration Association. Discovery shall be allowed in accordance with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. The arbitrator shall have the power to issue subpoenas, compel discovery, and award sanctions. The Dispute will be decided by the arbitrator and the arbitrator's decision, including any award of actual money damages or equitable relief, shall be final and binding. Each party shall be responsible for its own legal fees, costs, and expenses, except that the arbitrator may award legal fees and costs if he/she finds a party's actions, including invoking arbitration, were not taken in good faith. In no case shall an award of fees or costs exceed the amount of money damages awarded by the arbitrator. The other costs of arbitration shall be borne by the losing party, unless the arbitrator decides otherwise, and shall be limited to arbitrator's fees and expenses, including travel expenses, and any cost for arbitration facilities. The arbitration award may be confirmed as a legal judgment in any court with jurisdiction.

C. In the event any provision of this Agreement is found to be invalid or unenforceable, the remaining provisions shall remain in effect.

D. This Agreement and attachments referenced herein, including but not limited to addendums, Commission Schedules, and Company policies and procedures, constitute the entire contract between the parties and supersede any and all previous agreements between the parties; provided, however, Distributor's right to commissions from policies written pursuant to a previous agreement between the parties shall not be modified.

E. Company may modify this Agreement, including but not limited to the Commission Schedules, upon thirty (30) days prior written notice to Distributor, but any such modification shall not reduce the rate or rates with respect to commission payments due Distributor in connection with policies produced by Distributor and issued by Company with effective dates prior to the effective date of such modification. Notwithstanding the foregoing, upon the enactment of any law or regulation, or any order or direction of any governmental agency affecting this Agreement, Company may, by written notice to Distributor, amend the Agreement in such manner as Company determines necessary to comply with such law or regulation, or any order or directive of any governmental agency.

21. This Agreement is effective _____, 20____.

Distributor and Company have entered into this Agreement through their duly authorized representatives on the dates set forth below.

A Summary of Your Rights Under the Fair Credit Reporting Act

The federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) promotes the accuracy, fairness, and privacy of information in the files of consumer reporting agencies. There are many types of consumer reporting agencies, including credit bureaus and specialty agencies (such as agencies that sell information about check writing histories, medical records, and rental history records). Here is a summary of your major rights under the FCRA. For more information, including information about additional rights, go to www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore or write to: Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, 1700 G Street N.W., Washington, DC 20552.

- You must be told if information in your file has been used against you. Anyone who uses a credit report or another type of consumer report to deny your application for credit, insurance, or employment – or to take another adverse action against you – must tell you, and must give you the name, address, and phone number of the agency that provided the information.
- You have the right to know what is in your file. You may request and obtain all the information about you in the files of a consumer reporting agency (your “file disclosure”). You will be required to provide proper identification, which may include your Social Security number. In many cases, the disclosure will be free. You are entitled to a free file disclosure if:
 - a person has taken adverse action against you because of information in your credit report;
 - you are the victim of identity theft and place a fraud alert in your file;
 - your file contains inaccurate information as a result of fraud;
 - you are on public assistance;
 - you are unemployed but expect to apply for employment within 60 days.In addition, all consumers are entitled to one free disclosure every 12 months upon request from each nationwide credit bureau and from nationwide specialty consumer reporting agencies. See www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore for additional information.
- You have the right to ask for a credit score. Credit scores are numerical summaries of your credit-worthiness based on information from credit bureaus. You may request a credit score from consumer reporting agencies that create scores or distribute scores used in residential real property loans, but you will have to pay for it. In some mortgage transactions, you will receive credit score information for free from the mortgage lender.
- You have the right to dispute incomplete or inaccurate information. If you identify information in your file that is incomplete or inaccurate, and report it to the consumer reporting agency, the agency must investigate unless your dispute is frivolous. See www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore for an explanation of dispute procedures.
- Consumer reporting agencies must correct or delete inaccurate, incomplete, or unverifiable information. Inaccurate, incomplete or unverifiable information must be removed or corrected, usually within 30 days. However, a consumer reporting agency may continue to report information it has verified as accurate.
- Consumer reporting agencies may not report outdated negative information. In most cases, a consumer reporting agency may not report negative information that is more than seven years old, or bankruptcies that are more than 10 years old.

- Access to your file is limited. A consumer reporting agency may provide information about you only to people with a valid need – usually to consider an application with a creditor, insurer, employer, landlord, or other business. The FCRA specifies those with a valid need for access.
- You must give your consent for reports to be provided to employers. A consumer reporting agency may not give out information about you to your employer, or a potential employer, without your written consent given to the employer. Written consent generally is not required in the trucking industry. For more information, go to www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore.
- You may limit “prescreened” offers of credit and insurance you get based on information in your credit report. Unsolicited “prescreened” offers for credit and insurance must include a toll-free phone number you can call if you choose to remove your name and address from the lists these offers are based on. You may optout with the nationwide credit bureaus at 1-888-5 OPTOUT (1-888-567-8688).
- You may seek damages from violators. If a consumer reporting agency, or, in some cases, a user of consumer reports or a furnisher of information to a consumer reporting agency violates the FCRA, you may be able to sue in state or federal court.
- Identity theft victims and active duty military personnel have additional rights. For more information, visit www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore.

States may enforce the FCRA, and many states have their own consumer reporting laws. In some cases, you may have more rights under state law. For more information, contact your state or local consumer protection agency or your state Attorney General. For information about your federal rights, contact:

ADVANCE COMMISSION ADDENDUM

This Advance Commission Addendum (“Addendum”) is an Addendum to the Distributor Agreement (“Agreement”) you (“Distributor”) have already signed with Medico Insurance Company (“Medico”) and/or Medico Corp Life Insurance Company (“Medico Corp”), and establishes the terms and conditions pursuant to which Medico and/or Medico Corp will advance commissions to you. Commissions, including advances, are payable pursuant to the Commission Schedule. Distributor represents and warrants that any advances are solely for business purposes.

It is understood and agreed:

1. Medico and/or Medico Corp will pay commission advances weekly on eligible policies that are issued and whose premiums are paid on monthly bank draft or credit card mode. The advance commission will equal nine (9) months of the annualized commission. Medico and/or Medico Corp reserve the right, in their sole discretion and without prior notice, to add or remove products available for advance commissions.
2. In the event of any refund, rescission, lapsed, stop-payment or cancelled policy, any unearned portion of the advance will be deducted from the next payment otherwise payable to Distributor, including but not limited to advance(s) and any earned first-year and renewal commission.
3. Distributor will be indebted to Medico and/or Medico Corp by receiving advance commission under this Addendum. Any indebtedness will be legal debt that will be due on demand. Medico and/or Medico Corp will retain a first lien on all sums due for the satisfaction of the debt and is not limited to this means of collection. The advance debit balance shall accrue interest at a rate of 1% per month (12.7 APR).
4. Medico and/or Medico Corp may amend or terminate this Addendum at any time with prior written notice to Distributor, which notice shall not be required to meet the requirements under Section 24 of the Agreement.
5. This Addendum shall be read together and construed as one document with the Agreement, but to the extent of any inconsistency or ambiguity, this Addendum shall govern. Except as specifically provided in this Addendum, all of the terms and conditions of the Distributor Agreement shall remain in full force and effect.
6. If this Addendum and/or Agreement are terminated for any reason, Medico and/or Medico Corp may retain all first year and renewal commissions to offset advance amounts outstanding. The security created hereunder and Distributor’s obligation to repay any indebtedness shall survive termination of this Addendum and/or the Agreement.
7. If commission advances are not repaid by the Distributor when due pursuant to the terms hereof, Distributor agrees to pay all costs of collection, including, but not limited to, attorney fees, costs of suit, collection fees or such other costs and expenses as may be incurred by Medico and/or Medico Corp in such suit or action. This section shall survive termination of this Addendum and/or the Agreement.
